

Risk Assessment for Epic Lyte Sound Setting up and performance of Mobile Disco

Ref No:	Title	Location	Assessed By	Assessment Date
1	Setting up and performance	Mobile	Mike Twiss	20/01/2016

Task	Hazard	Person At Risk	Existing Control Measures	Risk Rating	Result
Install Equipment	Trip/Drop Hazzard	DJ, Attendees	Ensure that the area is clear of members of the public inform lead person that you need a clear walkway to deliver your goods Experience and sensible shoes. Install is prior to guest arrival	Low	T
Set up of Equipment	Overhead lighting could fall	DJ	Professional grade equipment used, clamps and bolts secured and checked	Low	A
Noise	Sound Levels	Attendees	Experience with sound reinforcement and limiters, will connect equipment to limiters if installed on the premises.	Low	A
Electricity	Shocks and burns	DJ	Annual PAT test of electrical equipment. Visual inspection on set up. Any frayed or exposed cables replaced.	Low	A
Strobe Lighting	Epileptic fits and seizures	Attendees	Check with the lead person that there are no issues with strobe lighting if it is reported yes it will not be used. Although strobe lighting is not used at all events.	Low	A
Slips and Trips	Injuries such as fractures and concussions	DJ/Attendees	Cable mats used when required. Walkways clear. Highlight any protruding stands if used	Low	A
Falling Objects	Injury caused by falling items from	DJ/Attendees	Inspection of truss, any cracks in metal work item replaced. Stands and clamps secured prior to use and cables straps used to	Low	A height, e.g. light falling from overhead bar		keep cabling secure.

Fire	Burns, smoke inhalation and fatalities	DJ	Operatives to familiarise themselves with venue procedures. Assist venue as required with safety announcements. Would you have a fire extinguisher in your area if not it might be worth thinking about	Low	A
Drinks	Spillages	DJ	All drinks that will be used by the DJ will be kept in spill proof containers	Low	A

Result: T = Trivial, A = Adequately Controlled, N = Not Adequately Controlled, action required, U = Unknown Risk

Completion Of Risk Assessment
Risk Assessors Name: Michael Twiss	Signature:	Date: 20/01/2016
Date of next review: 19/01/2017		